My dear Sir. It is six weeks past since I received a letter from Mr. Barbarian.
As Curator. of the Cicconau Gathering of Art. saying that the photograph of my picture of a "port Reciting before Ramesses" had been received and referred to the Committee on works of Art and when acted on by them I would be notified. I assure you that only totem necessity compels me to again address you without awaiting that action for if I do not dispose of my picture, inside of ten days it will be taken for libel

I appeal to you now as a last resort, and would like very much indeed to send the picture to Washington for your inspection I would be willing to take one thousand or even eight hundred dollars for it if it is the result of nine months faithful effort. and I do not think that my worst enemy can deny ~~that~~ that in its production I have endeavored to act up to my hitherto professions contrary as they may have been to the received canons of Academic Art. it seems to me indeed hard that even if there is nothing more in this picture than is acknowledged by Mr.
Puntington and other members of the Committee on selection that I can not get at least enough money out of it to procure bread and ~~clothes~~ which it all I ask. To enable me to patent another idea, which may be more successful, and not go down like the fated engraving almost in sight of the goal with no hand stretched forth for succor hoping for your favourable consideration of this proposition and an early answer if am dear

Mr. Davies, who left about a month ago, would have been only too glad to deliver your your things through by that time; I am sorry to say, that even up to the present hour, he

Your kind expressions regarding the "Niagara" are most flattering and I assure you that I appreciate them. I also confess to a feeling of pride, that this picture which first introduced my name into foreign countries and contributed so largely to my reputation I have at home, has found its permanent resting place at Washington in the "Corcoran wide open to all.

The picture was originally for the moment forgotten but it is on the picture) The price which I asked and received was $2500.

I also received $2000. for the Copyright -

It was reproduced by the then new process of Chromo.
Lithography -

The picture later fell into the hands of Brown Bros, Bankers and I believe was sold by them to Mr. Johnston for $5000 -

It has more lately been engraved on steel by Wm. Forrest the eminent engraver and published by M. Knudler & Co New

Copyright -

I have a large number of notices of the "Niagara" cut from foreign & domestic Journals which you can see at any time if you so desire -

The "Magdalena" picture is suffering from the improper use of a layer of lead in the preparation of the Camos - The evil results of which unfortunately only show themselves after a lapse of years, and it seems impossible for the artist to discover from the appearance of the Camos that anything is wrong - I have, too late for the present, discovered how to prevent the mischief from occurring in the future

It only affects the thin painted parts of a picture - I have indulged the hope - now greatly increased

Dear Sirs I am desirous of selling Mr E Marshall's painting in oil of Mr Lincoln - a work which is considered the portrait. I had this portrait at Springfield Illinois at the unveiling of the Lincoln Monument in Oct 1874. it was hung in the Secy of State's Office & there was seen by thousands of Mr Lincoln's friends & acquaintances & without any exception they admired it as a truthful & powerful portrait. It would have been sold to the State of Illinois only the assembly did not meet until 1875 & 76

- it was then 1874. This work is destined to be as valuable as the Stuart Washington now held by the Boston Athenaeum & valued at $100.00. I will sell this at a low figure.
If you feel disposed to purchase please write me soon that I may decide on other

WM. E. MARSHALL'S Great Portraits of Lincoln and Grant.

As faithful likenesses and beautiful works of Art, these Engraved Portraits have received, from friends who knew the great originals best, and from Artists of the highest reputations, the strongest commendations ever bestowed upon similar works.

A FEW OF MANY COMMENDATIONS ON THE "LINCOLN."

MARSHALL has lit up the countenance of the great-souled Lincoln with a glow that almost deceives the amateur into the belief that the spirit has not departed and the old form has not already gone back to the dust. He has given us the Lincoln of calm and thoughtful power, firm and striking. We feel that we look upon a great man. Marshall has not only presented to the world the best likeness of Mr. Lincoln, but much more, he has given us the best Engraving of equal size that has ever been produced in America.—Chicago Tribune.

Persons familiar with WM. E. MARSHALL's portrait of Washington, will understand how elaborately his Lincoln has been executed when they learn that it is superior to that remarkable production. Indeed, it is hardly possible to use too strong terms in commending this accurate likeness of the martyred President, which is so much more and so much better than a likeness. It correctly shows the homely honest countenance; but it shows also the character which made that countenance so expressive.—Boston Daily Traveller.

The Picture is a line engraving, executed with absolute finish and clearness. Not one face in fifty has its sensibility, its thought, its modest wisdom, its purity and gentleness * * This is the people's picture, one to be hung in studios, and school rooms, and parlors; to be wreathed with evergreen, and have perpetual offerings of flowers placed before it.—Chicago Republican.

In MARSHALL's Engraving of Lincoln, we have a picture of our Martyred President that fulfills all the conditions of a perfect portrait. We hardly know which most to admire, the artistic merits of Mr. MARSHALL's work, or its faithful delineation of the features of the greatest and most lamented man of his times.

Whoever before heard of a Portrait engraved in pure line with a facial measurement of seven inches? NOTHING of this size has EVER before been executed in pure line. The modeling of the head is excellent. It is truly a work of Sculpture in line.—Boston Journal.

FROM ROBT. T. LINCOLN.

I take pleasure in testifying to its excellence as a likeness. I cannot suggest any improvement.

SENATOR CHAS. SUMNER.

As a work of Art, it will take its place among those rare productions not to be forgotten. As a portrait, it will always be valued as presenting the original in his most interesting expression, where gentleness and sympathy unite with strength.

HON. GEO. BANCROFT, THE HISTORIAN.

As a work of Art, it is a masterpiece, executed with conscientious industry and admirable skill. I believe it will be sought for two hundred years hence, and every collection of American Engravings that is without it will be considered imperfect.

EX-GOVERNOR ANDREWS, OF MASSACHUSETTS.

I shall give it a conspicuous place at home, where all who visit me may look upon the picture and enjoy as I do its rare merits as a specimen of art.

MR. C. L. ELLIOTT, THE EMINENT PORTRAIT PAINTER.

I look upon it as a comprehensive idea in substance and enduring form, of our great and good martyred President; and as a work of lineal art it will stand forever among the best examples of any age or country.

SENATOR RICH'D YATES, OF ILLINOIS.

To its impressive correctness as a likeness of the man whom Illinois gave to the nation, and to the cause of liberty and equal rights, I bear cheerful testimony.

JUDGE S. H. TREAT, SPRINGFIELD, ILL.

It is an accurate likeness of Mr. Lincoln.

J. T. BRADFORD, MAYOR OF SPRINGFIELD, ILL.

A long intimacy with President Lincoln, has fixed his likeness firmly upon my memory, and in this engraving I see truth in every line.

HON. SCHUYLER COLFAX, SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The picture reminds me of him, as he looked the evening before the Inauguration Ball of 1865, when the Rebel Armies were still in the field, and he spoke so sadly of the long years and bloody sacrifices of the war, and yet so hopefully of the success he was certain Providence had in store for us.

J. G. WHITTIER, THE POET.

The old harsh lines and unmistakable mouth are there, without flattery or compromise, but over all and through all, the pathetic sadness, the wise simplicity and tender humanity of the man are visible. It is the face of the speaker at Gettysburgh, and the writer of the Second Inaugural.

HON. EDWIN M. STANTON, SECRETARY OF WAR.

This is regarded by me as a beautiful likeness of that great and good man. As one who knew and loved him, I rejoice that you have so well succeeded in your effort, by a work of art, in preserving the memory of his countenance, and enabling the world to know what manner of man he was.

CHIEF JUSTICE S. P. CHASE.

It is an admirable engraving, and a very accurate likeness.

REV. HENRY WARD BEECHER.

Both for excellence of likeness and admirableness of engraving, it takes precedence of all others. I think it ought to have the best place, next to Washington's, in every patriots parlor.

MR. HUNTINGTON, PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL ACADEMY.

Marshall's portrait engraving of Lincoln, is a truly great work, and entitled to rank with the master-pieces in that art.

A FEW OF MANY COMMENDATIONS ON THE "GRANT."

FROM MRS. GRANT TO THE ARTIST.

I am delighted with your splendid engraving of my husband. I cannot say too much in its praise. As a likeness I do not think it could be better, and I shall always prize your elegant gift.

SENATOR CHAS. SUMNER.

It is a rare and finished work, excellent as a likeness, and altogether worthy of a place in any collection, or on the walls of any house.

WM. CULLEN BRYANT THE POET.

It is really a noble specimen of the art of engraving. It is admirable as a likeness.

GEO. WM. CURTIS TO THE ARTIST.

The same force and fidelity, the same exquisite skill and delicacy, which you have made us all admire in your Washington and Lincoln, are renewed in this masterly work,

MAJ. GEN. O. O. HOWARD.

I do not know that I was ever more highly pleased with a work of the kind. The likeness is striking and the picture life-like.

MR. A. B. DURAND, THE EMINENT ARTIST.

This work sustains the high reputation of the Artist, established by the engraving of Mr. Lincoln.
